The undersigned acting as incorporators of a nonprofit corporation under the Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Act, Ala. Code (1975), §§ 10-3A-1 et seq., (the "Act"), adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I.

NAME

The name of the corporation shall be Hatching Hope of Alabama.

ARTICLE II.

DURATION

The period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual. The corporation is a non-for-profit corporation.

ARTICLE III.

PURPOSES AND POWERS

SECTION 3.01. Purposes. The general nature, objects and purposes for which Hatching Hope is organized is to establish an entity as a Not for Profit Corporation and, in addition:

The corporation is organized as an all volunteer, non-profit organization serving Alabama and is dedicated to providing supplies for that first night of rest to apartment dwellers that have been displaced through fire or other disasters, including such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).

The purpose of the organization is to provide supplies to apartment dwellers that have been displaced through fire or other disasters, including but not limited to air mattresses, blankets, toiletries, words of encouragement, coloring books for children and small stuffed animals. It may also include monetary donations to assist displaced apartment dwellers.

SECTION 3.02. Pursuit of Purposes and Exercise of Powers in Other Jurisdictions.

The corporation shall have all of the common law and statutory powers, authority and privileges generally granted to nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Alabama. The corporation shall have such additional powers as are reasonably necessary or appropriate to implement and effectuate the purposes of the Rescue and as are not inconsistent with these Articles as they may from time-to-time be amended.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to, its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Rescue shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of section 501(c)(3) purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, Hatching Hope shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code) or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, distribute the assets for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government or to a state or local government for a public purpose.

However, if the named recipient is not then in existence or no longer a qualified distribute or unwilling or unable to accept the distribution, then the assets of this organization shall be distributed to a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated exclusively for the purposes specified in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).
