

This obligation Witnesseth that I L. O. Oak have this day sold my Entire Growing crops of corn and cotton to my wife Lucinda Oak to secure her for having advanced for me to M. J. Horton the sum of twenty seven Dollars out of her individual funds and also to secure him the further amount of the expenses of raising of the crops or feeding the family whilst the crops is being made I being willing and anxious to secure her for said liabilities incurred for me is the object for which this obligation is made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the day day and year above Written

The State of Alabama, Before me H. N. Nabors a Judge of the Peace for said county Personally appeared L. O. Oak and acknowledged that the above written obligation in the presence of the above Witnesses given under my hand and seal this 16.
 Sept 1852. H. N. Nabors Justice of the Peace