

The State of Alabama }
 Shelby County } This certifies that I as Administrator of the Estate of Joseph Jolly dec'd, after Petition &c on the 23 day of January 1857. obtained the order of the Probate Court of Shelby County to sell the real estate of said Dec'd, and after giving due notice did on the 8th day of March 1857 sell said real Estate in pursuance of said order & the authority vested in me as such Administrator, at which sale Hancock Porter bid off & became the purchaser of the $\frac{3}{4}$ of the $\frac{3}{4}$ & the $\frac{1}{2}$ of the $\frac{3}{4}$ of section 28. of Township 21 of Range 1 West Tuscaloosa Land district, at the aggregate price of Seven hundred and fifty three $\frac{3}{4}$ of a dollar & for which the said Porter, has executed his note according to the terms of sale. Now I as such Administrator hereby bind myself upon the full payment of the aforesaid purchase money & the order of the Probate Court directing the same, to make a deed to the said Porter his heirs or assigns conveying the right title & interest in & to said lands so bought of which the said Joseph Jolly died seized & possessed
