

Henderson & J H Page
Shelby County - I do hereby declare that the note of even date herein to James H. Page for the sum of fifteen dollars and due on the first day of November 1879 was given for advances in necessary provisions, mules and farming implements and in money to purchase the same obtained by me from him bona fide for the purpose of making a crop and that without said advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary teams, provision and farming implements to make a crop. And I also hereby declare that said advances or the amount thereof shall be a lien on my crop grown on my plantation or lands rented by me & family in Shelby County Alabama this year to make which they were procured and on the stock furnished or which I may buy with the money so advanced in accordance with Sections 1858 to 1860 inclusive of the revised code of the State of Alabama. In consideration of said advances and to further secure the payment of the note above specified I do hereby grant bargains sell and convey to the said James H. Page the following described property to wit - all of the said crop Cotton and Corn raised on said plantation during the present year and one Gray Horse 10 years old called Robbins also 1 Cow & her Calf White Colored called Purkey to have and to hold the above described property to said James H. Page and his heirs and assigns forever. The right of Exemption under the laws of Alabama is hereby waived as provided for in section 7 article 10 in the Constitution of the State of Alabama. And if the said note is not paid at maturity the said James H. Page is hereby authorized to take the above described property into possession and sell the same as he may deem best and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of said note and the expenses of keeping and selling the said property upon this condition nevertheless that if said note is paid at maturity this covenant is to be void except as to said crop. And it is further agreed that if the said James H. Page shall advance to the said P. J. Henderson during the present year any money or provisions over and above the amount of said note this instrument shall also stand as security for the same as fully as if included in said note not exceeding Twenty dollars. It is further understood that nothing herein contained shall affect or impair the lien or remedy given to the said James H. Page upon and against said crop by sections of the revised code of Alabama and the said P. J. Henderson hereby declare that the above conveyed property is his own and that there is no lien or encumbrance on the same except the present one to H. H. Page in further consideration of the premises I hereby bind myself to ship or deliver my entire crop of Cotton raised this year to said James H. Page to be sold by him. Given under my hands and seals this the 19th day of February 1879.
