

Kenly Burton) The State of Alabama) On or before first day of Nov 1879 I
To Shelby County promise to pay to the order of W. T.
W. T. Smith Twenty dollars for value received, the right of exemption under the laws of Alabama is hereby waived as provided for in Section 7 Article 10 in the Constitution of the State of Alabama. The consideration of this obligation is an advancement made by said W. T. Smith of money and provisions to the above amount, "bona fide", for the purpose of making a crop this year, 1879, and without which it would not be in my power to procure the requirements to make such crop, and I hereby declare the aforesaid advances or the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on all crop grown on S. L. Lovewell's plantation, in Shelby County, Alabama this year, in accordance with the Act approved

January 15th 1866; and to further secure the payment of the aforesaid obligation according to the tenor and effect thereof, I hereby also bargain, sell and convey to the said W T Smith or agent or assign, the following described personal property trust-, one brown horse called Ralley, for the sum of Twenty dollars which amount has been paid to me and for which receipt is herewith given, In default of payment at maturity of the aforesaid obligation the said W T Smith or agent or assign I hereby authorized to take said property into his possession, sell the same as he may deem best, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of this obligation and expenses incident to the execution of this trust, upon this condition nevertheless, if said obligation is paid at maturity, this conveyance is null and void and it is further agreed if the said W T Smith shall advance to the said Buston H. Mealey during the present year any money or provisions over and above the amount of said note, this instrument shall also stand as security for the same as fully as if included in said note. And the said Buston H. Mealey hereby declare that the above conveyed property is his own, and that there is no lien or encumbrance on the same.
 In further consideration of the premises I hereby also declare that there will be no outside crops on said place owned by my wife daughter, or any one whatsoever, but that this instrument is to constitute a lien on the entire crop raised on said place this year.

Witness my signature this 13th day of Feby AD 1879
