

State of Alabama,) Personally came before me John E. Miles a Shelby County Justice of the Peace in and for said State and County Henry J. Bushy, who makes oath that he knew W.H. Stagner in his life time, and that he knows Matilda Stagner, the widow of said W.H. Stagner and is acquainted with the location of Fractional Section 7, Township 24, North of Range 16 East, which lies west of the Coosa River and that H.H. Stagner, during his life time, was in the open, notorious, continuous, adverse, peaceable and uninterrupted possession of that part of said Fractional Section 7, which lies north of the lands therein claimed and owned by H. Curtis and south of Spring Creek, holding, claiming and using the same as his own for a period of 20 years prior to the death of said Stagner, and that Matilda Stagner since the death of her husband, in 1910, has been in the open, notorious, continuous, adverse, peaceable and uninterrupted possession of the said lands, and is now in the possession of said lands, having theron, houses fields, and enclosures, claiming the same as her own.
