 Section 28, Township 20, Range 2 W. known as the property of Godson Hand, he being a non-resident of the State, notice was given through the Shelby Sentinel a paper published in this county, of the day of hearing, and on the 9th day of June the day set for hearing. The Probate Court did render a decree for the sale of said lands. And in obedience to said decree I did proceed on Monday the 14th day of July having given legal notice to sell the aforesaid lands for the taxes and cost thereon for the year 1878, in front of the Court House door, where A. C. Evans became the purchaser, at the sum of ten and 70c Dollars, he having fully complied with the terms of the sale. This certificate is issued Witness my hand this 14th day of July 1878.
