J. H. Compton
Bankrupt

In Bankruptcy
no 14,066.

It being made to appear that the bankrupt has filed his application for discharge in this court, and it appearing that the Jefferson County Savings Bank and A. F. Walker, as Superintendent of Banks, have filed objections to the discharge of the bankrupt, in order that certain actions in the Marengo County Law and Equity Court may ~~be~~ proceed to judgement against the said bankrupt as a predicate to judgements against sureties on certain garnishments or other bonds executed in said causes, and it being made to appear that in order to remove the pendency of said causes as an obstacle to the granting of his discharge in bankruptcy, the said bankrupt has executed and filed in the Marengo County Law & Equity Court in said causes his stipulations and agreements consenting and agreeing that the said several causes, which were instituted in said court under the name and style of Jefferson County Savings Bank v. J. H. Compton, shall be tried on their merits and that a discharge in bankruptcy herein shall not be pleaded in said causes, or either of them; and the said J. H. Compton now causing certified copies of said agreements, as filed in said Marengo County Law & Equity Court, to be filed herein in connection with and for the purpose of securing his discharge; and counsel for the plaintiff in said causes in said Marengo County Law & Equity Court appearing herein and agreeing that, in the event of the recovery of judgement in said causes or either of them, against the said J. H. Compton, execution against the said J. H. Compton shall be stayed, but without prejudice as to a recovery and execution against the sureties on the garnishments or other bonds executed in said causes or either of them; And

Whereas the said J. H. Compton of Clumbiana in said district, has been duly adjudged a bankrupt, under the Acts of Congress relating to Bankruptcy, and appears to have conformed to all the requirements of law in that behalf;

It Is, Therefore, Ordered by the Court that the said J. H. Compton be discharged from all debts and claims which are made provable by said Acts against his estate, and which existed on the 13 day of March 1915, on which day the petition for adjudication was filed by him; excepting such debts as are by law excepted from the operation of a discharge in bankruptcy.

Given, this twentieth day of July 1916.
