

State of Alabama, } Joseph C. Lee, being duly sworn says.
 Jefferson County, { That he is 43 years of age and has known the place in Shelby County on the Birmingham-Pump House Road to Cahaba Valley about one mile before reaching Fashy's store that old Brian John Atton was sold to Robt. R. F. (Cox) about twenty-five years ago, all his life, and affiant was born and lived most of his life about a mile from this land (S. 1/2 of S. 17 1/4, and N. E. 1/4 of of S. W. 1/4 of Sec. 30, T. 18, R. 17 N.; that Rob. Cox took charge of the place as owner when he bought it and has had it since and it right along ever since and it had been known by everybody in the Community as Rob Cox's place during all that period and affiant has never heard of anyone else making any claim to it; that old man John Attaway has been dead several years and he had only two children who are both living not far from that place now and whose names are J. W. Attaway and R. L. Attaway, and he left a widow who afterwards married Robt Simonous and is still living but she was not his wife when he sold that land to Rob. Cox as he had another wife then who died afterwards and then he married this one.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of January, 1918.
