Before me the undersigned authority personally appeared A. Brown, who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says that he knew Prince Eiland during his life and that he also knows the widow Clara Eiland.

That on or about the year of 1885
James D. Hardy and wife Hardy executed to Prince Eiland a deed to the following described property, to wit:

One acre of land in the north-east corner of the south-west quarter of the northwest quarter, lying just south of Gr. N. Railroad Company's tracks, in Calera, Section 2, Township 24, Range 13 East.

That the said Prince Eiland was during his life in open, notorious and peaceable possession of said above described property. That since his death in the year of 1908 his wife Clara Eiland has been in open, notorious and peaceable possession of said above described land.

That the above facts are true in every detail and particular arrived at from actual personal knowledge of my own. A. Brown.

Swear, do and subscribe before me on this the 27th day of December, 1923.
