Before me J. R. Johnson, a Justice of the Peace, in and for said County in said State personally appeared G. D. McLendon who being duly sworn deposes and says as follows: that he is 70 years of age and has lived within $\frac{1}{4}$ miles of Sebern Ozley who formerly lived at or near Longview, Ala. in Shelby County and affiant knew Sebern Ozley in his life time intimately and know that after the deed of William Ozley to Sebern Ozley dated on or about the 27th day of March 1865, which deed is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Ala. in Deed Record No. 6 on pages 277 & 278 the said Sebern Ozley moved upon the north east quarter of the northwest quarter (NE of NW office of Shelby County, Ala. and resides there until his death which occurred on or about the __dayof between the years 1865 and 1868, Affiant further states that while the said Sebern Ozley was in possession of said lands as aforesaid he held the same openly, adversely and peaceable and no one questioned his ownership or title to said lands and such possession and claim of ownership continued from said date of said deed up to and the date of his death.

Affiant further states that Sebern Ozley at the time of his death had only two children, and they being his sole heirs at law, the said heirs being Walter Ozley, and Eva Ozley Riddle.

Affiant further states that the said Walter Ozley and Eva Ozley Riddle after their said father's death lived on said lands, claiming to own the same by right of inheritance from their father Sebern Ozley and no one questioned their ownership, right of possession or title.

Affiant further states that such possession and claim of ownership on the part of Walter Ozley and Eva Ozley Riddle continued up to and until they sold the same to George L. Scott on the 24th day of September 1909.

Affiant further states that George L. Scott went into possession of said land under said above named deed and has held the same as the Ozley before him up to and until the date of the making of this affidavit.

I am not related to any of the parties connected with this title.
