Affidavit

STATE OF ALABAMA)
COUNTY OF SHELBY)

Before me, A.B. Baxley, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, personally appeared H. F.Blake, being first duly sworn, deposes and says under oath, that the following statements are true, that

That he has lived in ^Calera and its environs for more than twenty five years; That he knew Vina Brooks, that she is or was a negress; that she is now dead; that she bought, built a house and occupied same openly and notoriously, on anacre of land lying just west of the L & N road about a mile south of ^Calera, Ala. That she lived in this house for a period of years more than twenty years ago. That all who came in contact with her, thought and understood this to be herown home by direct purchase.

That the tract from which this acre was purchased did and does now belong to the Huggins estate, and it is reasonable to believe that this particular acre was purchased from J. M. Huggins more than twenty five years ago, and through ignorance or carelessness neglected to have such deed placed on record.

Each of the succeeding owners of this particular plot of land has gone into peaceful and unterrupted possession free from the claims or demands of any person or persons or claimants whatsoever, this covering a period of more than twenty five years.

Sworn to and subscribed before me

H. F. Blake

this the 9th day of March 1926.
