AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA )

JEFFERSON COUNTY )

Before me the undersigned authority in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared N. E. Jones, who after being duly sworn deposes and says that he is a son of M. J. Jones and a grandson of Sanders Jones; that affiant's father M. J. Jones died prior to the 4th day of December, 1916 and left surviving him the following children, namely:
Rusha Bailey, whose husband's name was F. O. Bailey; M. A. Owens, a widow, and affiant,
N. E. Jones, that he also left surviving him M. Amnie Jones and J. S. Jones who were children of affiant's deceased brother J. S. Jones, and he also left surviving him Mrs.
M. J. Jones, affiant's mother, and N. F. Jones who was the widow of affiant's deceased brother J. S. Jones and who had remarried to a man named B. Fincher. Further deposing affiant says that his father M. J. Jones did not leave surviving him any other children or children of deceased children except those named above. Further deposing affiant says that affiant's brother J. S. Jones did not leave surviving him any children except M. Annie Jones and J. S. Jones named above and did not leave surviving him any children of deceased children. Further deposing affiant says that those named in the first part of this affidavit constitute all the heirs of affiant's father M. J. Jones and of affiant's brother J. S. Jones.

Further deposing affiant says that he was acquainted with Frances Whatley and her husband Frank Whatley; that he knows of his own personal knowledged that Frank Whatley died prior to the 20th day of January, 1923, and that Frances Whatley was a widow at that time. Further deposing affiant says that he was well acquainted with his uncle R. C. Jones who was a son of Sanders Jones, that the wife of R. C. Jones died more than 25 years ago and he was a widower on Dec. 6, 1902.
