AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA
SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, L. H. Ellis, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Mary E. Blackerby, a widow, who is known to me, and who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says that she is the owner of the Old Court House and lot on which it stands, situated in the town of Columbiana, Alabama, and bounded on the north by Main Street, on the east by the Columbiana-Shelby public road, on the south by the D. S. Lightcap property and me the west by the Columbiana-Shelby Springs road.

Further deposing affiant says that on the 13th day of September, 1921, she sold and deeded said property to J. G. Adams, and delivered said deed on said date, and that subsequently said J. G. Adams deeded said property back to her, by deed dated March 8, 1922, and which said deed is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 69 at page 466 and which deed was delivered to her on said date of execution.

Further deposing affiant says that she and those throm whom she claims, and has derived, title to said property have been in the actual, open, notorious, continuous, exclusive, adverse possession of the same, claiming to own it from March 9, 1908, down to the present time. The last mentioned date, viz: March 0, 1908, being the date of the execution and delivery of a deed by Shelby County to J. W. Blackerby who was then the husband of affiant, and which said deed is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Book 39, at page 177.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this the 5th day of Narch 1927.

Mary E. Blackerby
