

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA)

JEFFERSON COUNTY)

Personally appeared before me W. L. Acuff a Notary Public in and for said County in said State J. E. Adams, who by me first being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

I knew R. G. Weldon, in his life time and I know J. H. Adams, The wife of R. G. Weldon died about 1885 and he was never married again. At the time R. G. Weldon made certain deeds to J. H. Adams and to J. E. Adams during the years of 1909, 1910, and 1911 he was a widower, and remained so the rest of his life. At the time J. H. Adams executed a deed to J. E. Adams on Nov. 14, 1910, which deed is of record in deed record _____ on page _____ in the office of the Probate Judge of Shelby County Alabama, the said J. H. Adams was an unmarried man and did not marry for several years thereafter/

Affiant further states that he knows Max Perkins and knew him in 1911 and that affiant never knew of his claiming to own any part of the lands known as the J. E. Adams home place, situated in Sections 31 and 32, Township 19, Range one east, in Shelby County Alabama.

Affiant further states that he was acquainted with Elizabeth Thomaston and D. L. Morrison, and that he has knowledge of the fact that they were united in marriage about the year 1905.

And affiant makes oath that the above statements are true.

Sworn to and subscribed before me

J. E. Adams

this the 18 day of May 1927.
