

Affadavit.

The State Of Alabama,) Jefferson County ,)

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for Jefferson County, Alabama, Henry L. Badham, who, having been duly sworn to speak the truth, depose and says as follows:

That affiant is the son of the Henry L. Badham and Helen J. Badham, who on January 20th, 1916, executed a deed to Saginaw Land Company, in which said instrument the separate acknowledgment of said Helen J. Badham was not taken before a Notary Public, and which said deed is recorded in Deed Book 58, page 210, of Shelby County, Alabama, and that said property conveyed therein was at said time no part of the homestead of said Henry L. Badham, the grantor therein, and that at no time was said property therein described a part of the homestead of the grantors therein.

Affiant further says that he was acquainted with David Roberts, who, on the 29th day of June 1896, executed a deed to Saginaw Land Company, which said deed in recorded in Deed Book 19, page 184, of Shelby County, Alabama, and that affiant knew said Roberts prior to the execution of said deed and up to the date of his death, and that said Roberts has been dead for about fifteen years, and that the wife of said Roberts, who still survives, has made no claim to dower in the estate of said Roberts.

Henry L. Badham.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 26th. day of October, 1927.
