

Affadavit.

The State Of Alabama,)

Jefferson County ,)

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority in and for said County, in said State, John B. Farrell, who is known to me, and who being by me first duly sworn, deposeth and saith on oath as follows:

I am one of the children and heirs of J.S. Farrell, who formerly resided in Shelby County, Alabama, and who died on or about twenty-two years ago to wit: in the year 1904, leaving surviving him the following named children: Mrs. S.A. Burgess, Mrs. Dora Adams, S.M. Farrell, J.D. Farrell, Mrs. Etta Willis, T.F. Farrell, Mrs. Eva Waggoner, W.C. Farrell, Mrs. Augusta Fulton, H.C. Farrell, and Affiant. Affiant further states that the above persons constitute all the surviving heirs at law of the said J.S. Farrell.

Affiant further states; My mother Mrs Mary Ann Farrell, the widow of J.S. Farrell, died on April 1st, 1924.

Affiant further states one daughter, Mrs. S.A. Burgess is now deceased, and that she left surviving her two sons J.W. Burgess and E.B. Burgess, and one daughter Annie Pettus, who is now a widow. Affiant further states that the husband of Mrs. S.A. Burgess is now deceased.

Affiant further states that Mrs. Etta Willis died on or about the early part of 1916, leaving surviving her the following heirs, Inez Orr, Gena Savage, L.D. Willis, Paul Willis and H.F. Willis.

Affiant further states he had one sister who died before his father, and that she left surviving her the following named heirs: Hobary C. Fulton, Mildred Mood and S.L. Fulton.
