That affiant has been familiar with the location of, the title to, and the possession to, all of the above described property for more than the past forty five (45) years. That affiant has lived in close proximity to all of said property for more than the past forty five (45) years. That the above described property surrounds affiant's property, upon which affiant lives. That the title and possession to the above described property is now vested in the Saginaw Land Company. That prior to the time the Saginaw Land Company owned said property, said property was owned by Henry L. Badham, and prior to the time Henry L. Badham acquired title to said property said property was owned by the Saginaw Lime and Lumber Company. That the Saginaw Land Company acquired title to said above described property from Henry L. Badham and wife Helen J. Badham by warranty deed, dated January 20th 1916, and recorded in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, in Deed Book Fifty Eight (58), Page two hundred Ten (210). That immediately after said conveyance by Henry L. Badham and wife, Helen J.Badham to Saginaw Land Company, the said Saginaw Land Company went into the actual, open, peaceable and notorious possession to all of the above described property, and the said Saginaw Land Company has held the actual, peaceable, continuous, open, notorious and adverse possession to all of said above described property fromsaid date of January 20th, 1916, to the present time, and said Saginaw Land Company now holds the actual, open, peaceable, notorious and adverse possession to all of said property That during all of said period of time said Saginaw Land Company has annually listed said property for taxation in Shelty County, Alabama, and has annually paid the taxes upon the same. That the greater part of said property is timber lands. That for many years prior to the time the Saginaw Land Company acquired title to the above described property, as aforesaid, affiant was employed by the said Saginaw Lime and Lumber Company and the said Henry L. Badham to supervise and manage said property for them. That for many years affiant has managed said property for the said Saginaw Lime & Lumber ompany, the said Henry L. Badham, and the said Saginaw Land Company, That during all of said period of time affiant has had the active control and management of said property for said respective owners. That during said period of time affiant has had supervision over the letting of timber contracts on said property, and the cutting of timber from said property. That during said period of time affiant has, at various times, worked at establishing the lines to the above property, and has been over, upon and across the above described property many times. That during the respective periods of ownership of the above described property ty the Saginaw Lime & Lumber Company, the said Henry L. Badham and the said Saginaw Land Company, said owners have been cutting the merchantable timber fromsaid above described property, either by their servants, agents and employees or by contracts with others and all of said timber cutting has been under the supervision of affiant on behalf of said respective owners. That although affiant has lived in close proximity to said property, has managed and controlled the same and has been over and upon said a property many times, establishing lines to portions of said property, supervising the cutting of the merchantable timber therefrom, and generally managing, looking after, supervising and caring for said property on behalf of said owners, affiant has never heard of any person claiming any right, title or interest in and to any of said property adverse to the right, title and interest of the aginav Land Company in and to said property. That no person has had the possession to any of the above described property save and except the Saginaw Land Company, or those claiming under it, or on said property, by its consent and permission. That for more than the past ten (10) years the Saginaw Land Company has held the actual, peaceable, open, continuous, notorious and adverse possession to all of said property, and has been using it inthe customary manner and for the uses for which it is suitable.
