

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA)
SHELBY COUNTY)

Before me W.C. Welch, a Notary Public in and for Shelby County, Alabama, personally appeared A. J. Warlick who is known to me and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says that he was acquainted with Caroline T. Davis, in her life time; that said Caroline T. Davis was a daughter of John Martin who at the time of his death, owned the lands described in the foregoing affidavit of J. J. Burks; that affiant in 1915 was the husband of Bettie Davis Warlick, a daughter of said Caroline T. Davis, and at said time in 1915 the sole and only heirs at law of said Caroline T. Davis were her son, Tom Davis, her daughter, Bettie Davis Warlick and Luther Davis and Ruth Davis, who were then the sole heirs at law and next of kin of Carrie Davis, who was likewise a daughter of said Caroline T. Davis.

Further deposing affiant says that he has read the aforementioned affidavit of J. J. Burks and the facts set forth therein are true; that affiant and his wife, together with Tom Davis and his wife, and said Luther Davis and Ruth Davis, executed to J. J. Burks a quit claim deed conveying to him all of their interest in and to the land described and set out in the aforementioned affidavit of J. J. Burks that said deed was duly executed and acknowledged by all of said grantors before D. W. Waits, a Notary Public of Shelby County, Alabama, and was delivered to said J. J. Burks.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this the 4 day of December, 1928.
