
AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA)
 SHELBY COUNTY)

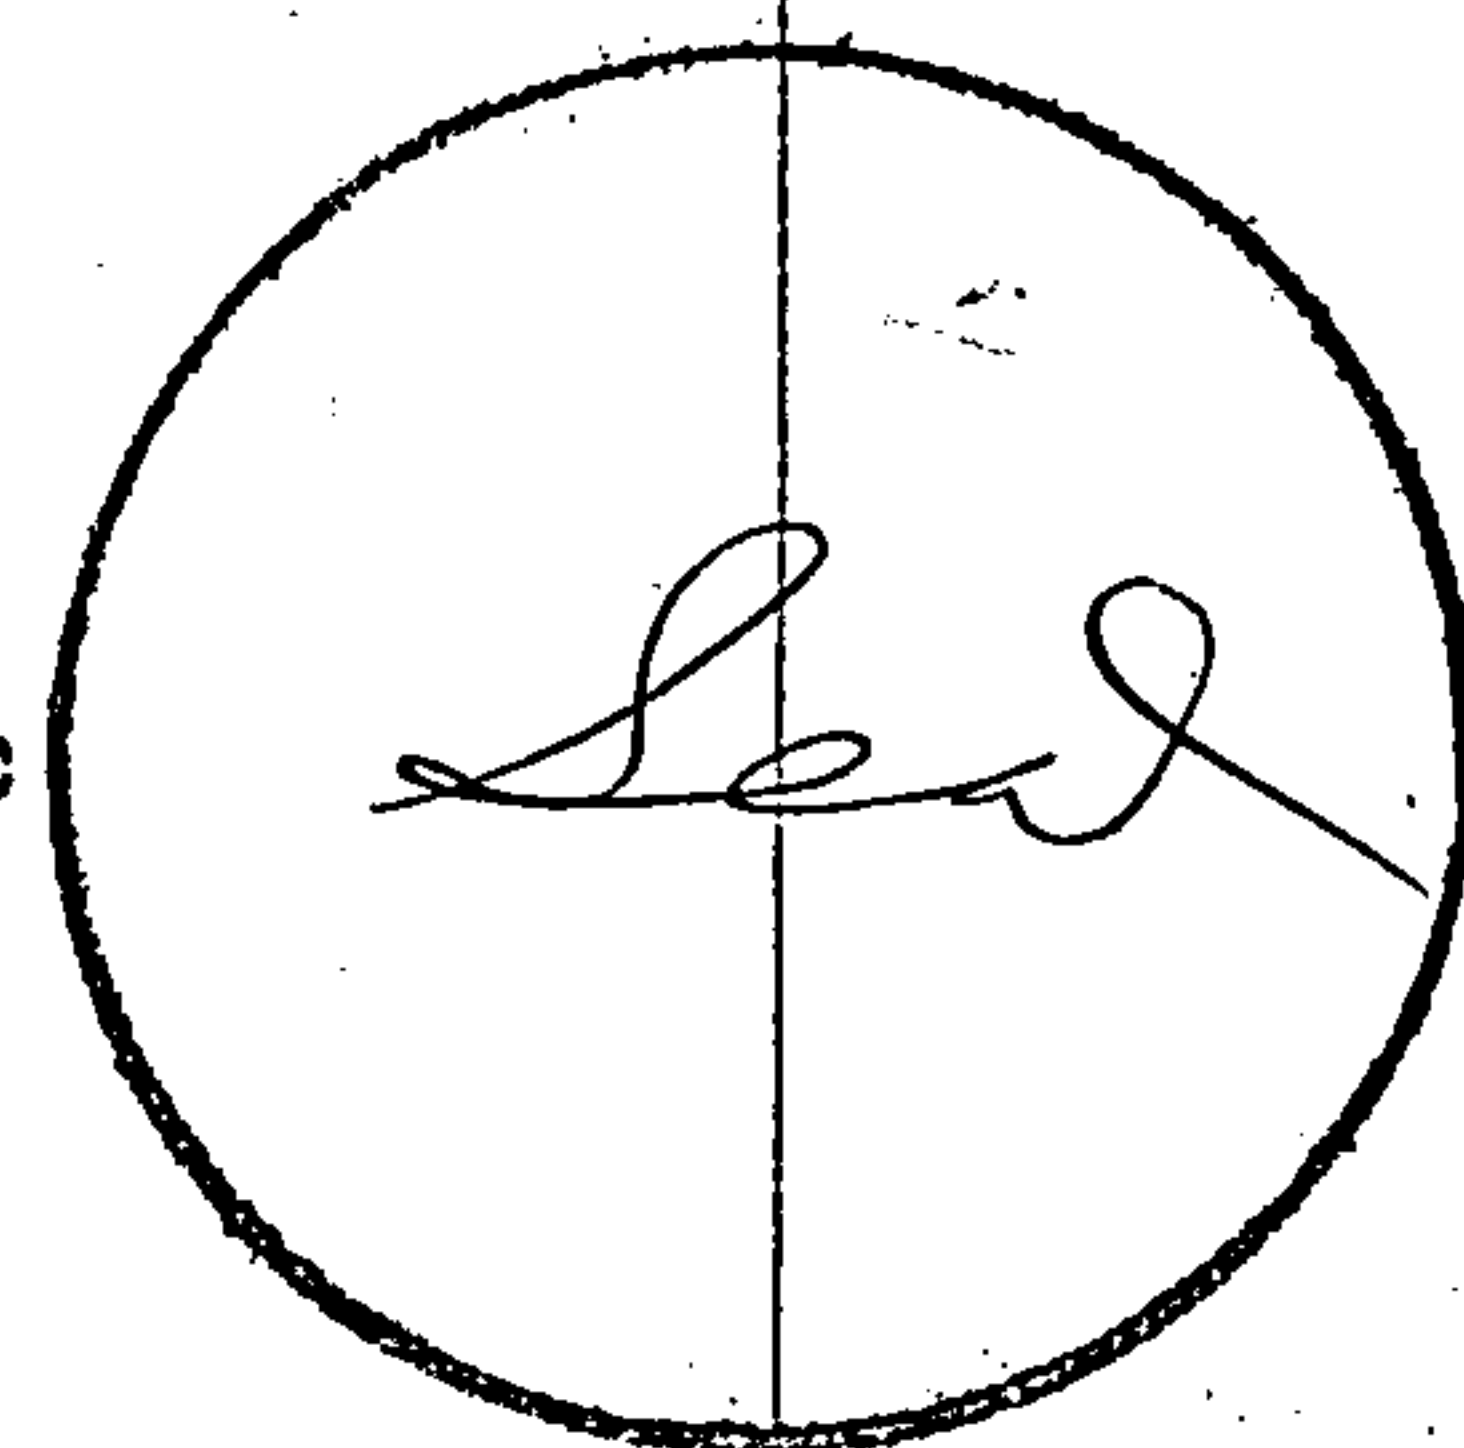

Before me the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, this day personally appeared, Jena Crim, widow of the late E. D. Crim deceased, who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says as follows:

That on the first day of June 1911, she and her husband purchased of J. J. Zeally and wife A. Zealley the southeast fourth of the southeast fourth of the southeast fourth, Section ten, Township twenty four, range thirteen east, containing ten acres more or less, Shelby Countym Alabama; that she and her husband, E.D.VCrim took actual possession of said property, clearing, fencing and cultivating said lands continuously till same were sold to T. R. Neel on the 6th day of October, 1925. That she and her husband regularly assessed and paid the taxes on same throughout their terms of ownership; and that she, her predecessors and successors in title held same openly, notoriously and adversely against the claims of any one whatsoever; in fact no point or question has ever arisen within my knowledge of the lands for more than twenty five years that would cloud the title in these respective lands over this period.

Jena Crim

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 5th day of October, 1928.
