Before me the undersigned authority, personally appeared Mrs. Bessie Brown who formerly was Mrs. Bessie Allen and who being duly sworn deposes and says that she is a daughter of Mary J. Reynolds and husband Henry C. Reynolds, both of whom are deceased; that said Mary J. Reynolds died intestate and seized and possessed of the property described and conveyed in and by that certain deed executed by her heirs at law to Davies, Jeter & Co., according to abstract of title shown me dated May 23, 1908, and recorded in Deed Book 41, page 306, Shelby County, Record; that on the said date of said deed the following named were the sole and only heirs at law of said Mary J. Reynolds; W. B. Reynolds, Eugene D. Reynolds, Herbert E. Reynolds, Mrs. Bessie Allen (affiant) Mrs. Maude Jones, Mrs. Fannie Belle Rogan; Fred K. Reynolds, and Harry C. Reynolds who at that time were unmarried and Lucia L. Reynolds who also was unmarried at said time.

Mrs. Bessie Brown
