We the undersigned are all of the children of M.T. Busby (deceased) except C.A. Busby who disappeared about twelve years ago and has never been heard of since, and we further state that Sesan K. Busby is our mother and the only living wife of M.T. Busby (deceased):

Busby will ever be seen by us any more for we have tried to locate him in many ways but have never been able to do so, so we and all the signers hereby bind ourselves jointly or severally to indemnify you against any loss or claim that could be caused from the re-appearance of the said C. A. Busby and if the said C.A. Busby should ever appear and demand any interest in the place that you are buying from us or our mother, we, all of any of the undersigned, will pay him whatever it may take for his deed to the property and pay you for all trouble you have been put to and any expense pertaining to same that you may have been out; this is meant to act as a bond and our estates are collateral for same in the event that it may ever become necessary to indemnify you as above stated.
