

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA)

JEFFERSON COUNTY)

Before me the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, personally appeared Mrs. Ludie Ray Seagle, who after first being duly sworn, by me, deposes and says as follows:

That she is a resident of Bamford, Shelby County, Alabama, and that she is a sister of Mrs. Cynthia A. Sturdivant, deceased, who was the wife of W. H. Sturdivant, deceased, and that she lived in the home with the said W. H. Sturdivant, deceased, and his wife Cynthia A. Sturdivant, prior to the death of either of them and have continued to live in the same home every since the death of both of them, and that at the time of the death of the said W. H. Sturdivant, that she was fully familiar with his family and relatives, also his business affairs.

The affiant further avers and says that at the time of the death of the said W. H. Sturdivant that he was the owner of the following described real estate in Shelby County, Alabama, to-wit: The SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 26, Township 20, Range 4 west, mineral and mining rights excepted, excepting however, the following parcels to-wit: 1 acre more or less described in that certain deed executed by W. H. Sturdivant and wife C. A. Sturdivant on the 26th day of March 1905, to The African Methodist Episcopal Church, said deed is of record in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 50 at page 317, also 10 acres more or less, described in that certain deed executed by W. H. Sturdivant and wife C. A. Sturdivant, on the 22nd day of Sept. 1913, to Henderson Grigery, said deed is of record in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 50 at page 67, also 5 acres more or less, which is described in that certain deed executed by W. H. Sturdivant and wife C. A. Sturdivant on the 1st day of June 1921, to Stiff Shinn, said deed is of record in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 76, at page 292.

The affiant further avers and says that all claims against the estate of W. H. Sturdivant deceased have been paid in full and that the said estate of W. H. Sturdivant owes no debts and that there are no suits or judgments pending against the estate of the said W. H. Sturdivant and also that the said W. H. Sturdivant had no minor children or minor heirs whatever at the time of his death.

Mrs. Ludie Ray Seagle
