Before the undersigned authority personally appeared F. W. Rogan of Montevallo Alabama, who being duly sworn deposes and says in reference to the application of J.R.Lewis to Protective Life Insurance Company of Birmingham Alabama and offering to secure a loan sought by mortgage on parts of lots number 42 and 43, located in Montevallo, that he was well acquainted in their life times with Mrs. L.C. Latham and her husband H.S.Latham, the former owners and occupants of said property, their residence inwhich they died, respectively, is located on said part of Lot number 42, just across Shelby Street fromaffiant's place of business; that affiant is and for many years has been an undertaker in Montevallo and he was in charge of the burial of both Mrs L.C. Latham and H.S. Latham, her husband; that said Mrs. L. C. Latham died on the 7th day of December, 1927, and her husband, H.S. Latham, died on the 13th day of March. 1925, as shown by affiant's records; that said Mrs. L.C. Latham and her husband, occupied said residence as a home from the time of the purchase thereof from Henry Wilson until their deaths, when their daughter, Ella Latham Mitchell, went into possession and occupied the same by her tenants, until purchase of the same by J. R. Lewis, who has ever since occupied it by his tenants.

F.W. Rogan
