

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA,
SHELBY COUNTY)

Before me C M Turner, a Notary Public in and for said County, and State, this day personally appeared Allen Martin, who after first being sworn states as follows:

I reside at Saginaw, Ala., and have so resided during the past year. I was reared near Calera, Ala., on a farm, Mr Samuel F Bowden, employed me and my father to do certain carpenter work including furnishing shingles, etc., on a certain building erected in the Town of Calera, being on lot NO 3 block 267, which work was done in the year 1883. According to my own knowledge Mr S F Bowden, occupied the said lot and premises continuously until the time of his death, which occurred on July 24th 1894, and since that time the heirs of Mr S F Bowden, i.e., Mr L. N. Bowden, Mr W. P. Bowden Mr R E Bowden, and Mrs Lula Lanham, have in been actual possession of the premises aforesaid. I have worked for the Bowdens at different times since 1883, they have claimed said lot No. 3 as being their home and I have never yett heard their title to said lot questioned.

Allen Martin
