STATE OF ALABAMA, SHELBY COUNTY)

Before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said State and County personally appeared J.R. White, who being first duly sworn deposes and says that he is 68 years of age and that he has resided in Columbiana, Alabama, for the past 52 years, and that he is familiar with the location, use, possession and ownership of the following described lot, situated in the town of Columbiana, Alabama, to-wit:

Beginning at the South-west corner of the old Sinnott front yard fence, which said lot is now known as the Compton property, running thence south 86 feet along the east side of Main Street; thence, running back east to the lands of Mrs W.T. Taylor, thence North to the lot known as the Compton lot, thence West along the south boundary line of said Compton lot and formerly known as the old Sinnott lot, front year fence to the point of beginning at the south-west corner of said front yard fence, and being more recently described as beginning at the south-west corner of the Sinnott lot, thence south two degrees and thirty minutes east 86 feet along the east side of Main Street, thence North 89 degrees east 421 feet to section line and boundary line of Mrs. W.T. Taylor's lot, thence North with said section line two degrees and thirty minutes west 86 feet, thence south 89 degrees west 421 feet to beginning, being the lot upon whichthe residence of Luther Fowler is now situated.

The afflant, being first duly sworn deposes and says further that he knew

James T. Leeper during his lifetime and that the time that a homestead was set apart to his widow, Mrs. Antoinette Leeper and to the minor children of the said James T. Leeper, deceased, the following were the minor children of said James T. Leeper, namely: James T. Leeper, Charles S. Leeper, and Lucy Leeper; that said homestead was set apart to said widow and minor children in the year 1889; that at the time of said allottment of said homestead to said widow and minor children the said Olive Leeper Nelson was over the age of 21 years; that on June 26th 1894, Mrs Nettie Leeper was a widow; that James T. Leeper was an unmarried man, that Charles S. Leeper was an unmarried man, and Lucy Leeper was an unmarried woman; that on June 26th, 1894, Olive Leeper Nelson was a married woman, the wife of Frank Nelson, now deceased.

Affiant further says that he was well acquainted with W.I.Sinnott, who was a Presbyterian Minister and who formerly owned the lot know known as the Luther Fowler residence lot, and being designated as Lot Number 102 on the map prepared by W.J.Horsley of the town of Columbiana, Alabama, and that on the 6th day of September, 1905 the said W.I.Sinnott was an unmarried man.

Affiant further says that he knew George L.Carlisle, deceased during his lifetime and that he knows that he left no minor children surviving him and no/children at the date said homestead was set aside to his widow, in fact, he left no children surviving him.

Affiant further states that in the year 1906, W.L. Christian bought the above described lot from his brother, L. F. Christian, and that soon thereafter the said W. L. Christian built a dwelling house upon said lot and resided thereon for five or six years, in fact, was in possession either by residing upon said lot as a home, or by tenant until the date that he conveyed said property to I.L. Carlisle and wife, Alice Carlisle; that G.L. Carlisle and his Wife, Alice Carlisle conveyed said property, immediately upon the receipt of a deed from W.L. Christian, to W.A. Lyon who went into immediate possession and resided thereon and using the same as his home until he re-conveyed the same to G.L.Carlisle in the year 1915; that the said G.L. Carlisle and his wife, Alice Carlisle, immediately moved into the dwedding upon said lot and resided thereon using the same as their home for sometime thereafter and were in possession by actual occupancy or by tenants until the death of the said G.L. Carlisle, and his widow was in possession of the same by tenant until the date dife same was conveyed by said widow to Fred G. Koenig; that upon the conveyance to the said Fred G. Koenig he immediately moved thereon and used the bsame as a mome wintil the year 1924, at which time he deased the same to Luther Fowder who resided thereon as a tenant of the said Fred G. Koenig until the date of a conveyance to Luther Fowler, that the said Luther Fowler has redided upon said property and has used the same as a home since the date of said purchase.

Affiant further states that the possession of the respective owners named above has been exclusive, continuous, notorious, and adverse for the period named above, and that your affiant has never heard of any claims made on advanced adverse to the claim or claims of the respective owners named in this affidavit.
