STATE OF ALABAMA, SHELBY COUNTY)

Before me L.H. Fllis, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared William G. Weldon, who is known to me, and who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

I am acquainted with and own the south east quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 12, Township 18 Range 1 Fast, Shelby County, Alabama. I remember when James L. Vandiver deeded this land to Samuel H. Collins on December 191 1888; I knew this land at that time and have known it continuously since said time; the deed of Vandiver to Collins is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 21 at page 196; at the time Vandiver executed said deed to Collins, he was in possession of said land, claiming to own it and Collins went in possession of said land immediately after the execution of said land, built a house on it and lived on it, and cultivated it for a number of gears, and remained in the actual possession of it, cultivating it each and every year until he deeded it to Frank Lynn by deed dated January 16, 1901, and which his recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 23 at page 381; upon the execution of the last mentioned deed to Frank Lynn he went in possession of said land, moved on it and lived on it and cultivated it continuously until he deeded it to J.B. Turner, by deed dated January 25, 1904, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 49 at page 414; upon the execution of the deed to Turner, as last above set out, said Turner went in possession of said land, moved upon it, lived upon it and built houses on it, and cultivated it, and remained in the actual possession of same, claiming to own it, until he deeded it to Ezekial Isbell by deed dated November 18, 1905, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 49 at page 416; said Ezekiel Isbell went into possession of said land immediately upon the execution of the last mentioned deed, moved upon it, and lived upon it and cultivated it each and every year until he deeded it to N. G. Brasher and wife, M. V. Brasher, by deed of date January 16, 1909, and upon the execution of the last mentioned deed said N. G. Brasher and wive moved upon said land, lived upon it, had possession of it and cultivated it each and every year until they deeded it to J. R. Weldon and wife, Lula Weldon by deed of date January, 5th, 1913, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 53 at page 344; said J. R. Weldon and wife, Lula Weldon, went in possession of said land immediately upon the execution of the last mentioned deed and had tenants on it, living upon it and cultivating it each and every year until said Weldon deeded it to Boyd W. Beason, also known as B. W. Deason, by deed dated September 30, 1915, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 79 at page 162; said Boyd W. Beason immediately upon the execution of the last mentioned deed moved upon said land, lived upon it and cultivated it continuously until he deeded it to W. H. Clark by deed dated July 11, 1919, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 66 at page 454; immediately upon the execution of the last mentioned deed said W. H. Clark went in possession of said land, moved upon it and lived upon it and cultivated it each and every year until he deeded it to Emma Brodie, on the 19th day of July, 1926, by deed which is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 79 at page 165; immediately upon the execution of the last mentioned deed said Emma Brodie went in possession of said land and had it occupied by tenants who lived upon it and cultivated it each and every year until she deeded it to affiant on the first day of November, 1928, by deed which is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 94 at page 326; that immediately upon the execution of the last mentioned deed, affiant, who is also known as W. G. Weldon, went in possession of said land, moved upon it and lived upon it and cultivated it each and every year down to the present time.

The deed herein referred to of Ezekiel Isbell and wife to N. G. Brasher and M. V. Brasher is recorded in deed book 49 page 417 in Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama.

Further deposing affiant says that from 1888, when said Vandiver deeded this land to S, H. Collins, no other person, firm or corporation has had any possession of said land other than those hereinabove set out, and referred to and during none of said time has any person, by the name of A. Watson, J. A. Walker, John Watson, S. J. Walker, L. W. Burke, Daisy L. Burke, or any other person, had any possession of said land whatsoever.

William G. Weldon
