STATE OF ALABAMA,

JEFFERSON COUNTY)

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Fronie McClellan, who, after being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

That she is one of the grantees in a deed recorded in Book 73, page 141, in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, and that she is one and the same person as Frances McClellan, that is one of the grantees in a deed that is recorded in Book 70, page 458. in the Probate Office of Shelby vcCounty, Alabama.

Affiant further states that her father was named W.W. Williams, and that he received a conveyance to the  $SF_4^1$  of  $NW_4^1$  of Section 11, Township 19, Range 2 West, situated in Shelby County, Alabama, on January 9th, 1906.

Affiant further states that she and her husband, S.R. McClellan have been in open, notorious, peaceable and undisputed possession of the above mentioned real estate and have been paying taxes on the same since the time same was conveyed to them, and that there has not been any claimsof any nature whatsoever made by any person so far as your affiant knows to the above mentioned property since the time of her father, W.W. Williams, received a deed to the above described property, except persons that derived title to the above described property through W.W. Williams.

Affiant further states that J.C.Carlisle and wife Ellen Carlisle and S.R.McClellan and Fronie McClellan and the only parties that received a conveyance to the above described property from W.W.Williams and that J.C.Carlisle and wife Ellen Carlisle conveyed it back to W.W.Williams.
