

Affidavit

State of Alabama,

Shelby County)

Before me, Grace Carter, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared James F. Henson, who is known to me and who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is James F. Henson, I am frequently referred to, however, as Jasper F. Henson, whereas my true name is James F. Henson.

I am applicant for a loan from the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, and the security offered is the following described real estate situated in Shelby County, Alabama, viz:

The north east quarter of north west quarter and north east quarter of south east quarter and a part of the west half of north east quarter and south east quarter of north east quarter of Section 18, Township 18, South, Range 1 East, described as follows: Beginning at the north west corner of the north east quarter of north west quarter and running east to the Gin House Branch, thence down the meanderings of said branch to its mouth at the creek, thence east to the north east corner of the north east quarter of south east quarter, thence south 1/4 mile, thence west 1/4 mile, thence north 1/4 mile, thence diagonally across the south west quarter of north east quarter to the south west corner of the north west quarter of north east quarter, thence west 1/4 mile, thence north 1/4 mile to the point of beginning. Excepting 2 acres conveyed to the State of Alabama for school and described as being a piece of property 99 yards square in south east corner of north east quarter of north west quarter Section 18, Township 18, South, Range 1 East, and also except the easement or right of way of the Alabama Power Company's transmission line as said line is now located. Containing 138 acres, more or less, situated in Shelby County, Alabama.

Further deposing affiant says that Barney Isbell on the 7th day of January, 1930, was an unmarried man and is still unmarried.

James F. Henson
