State of Alabama, Shelby County.)

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Dr. E. G. Givhan who being duly sworn deposes and says that he resides at Montevallo, Alabama; that for a period of more than 40 years last past he has been acquainted with the following described lands, to wit, Lot # 1 in Block M of Lyman's "ddition to the Town of Montevallo, Alabama, according to the map of said Lyman's addition, as recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama.

as the Grantee named inthat certain deed from Laura G. Ozley to E. Givhan, dated November 24th, 1902, as shown of record in deed book 28 on page 192, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, and that he knows of his own personal knowledge that Laura G. Olzey was on said last named date a widow, her husband having died on the 22nd day of November, 1902, just two days prior to the date of said deed; affiant further says that he was the family physician for said Laura G. Ozley, at the time of the death of her husband and that he attended him in his last sickness and that the above deed was executed on the day of the burial of the husband of the said Laura G. Ozley.

Affiant being first duly sworn deposes and says further that he was the Grantor in that certain deed executed by E. G. Givhan to Mary Belle Green and Bittie Green, dated January 24th, 1907, and which said deed is recorded in deed book 43 on page 38, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby Count, Alabama, conveying Lot # 1 in Block M of Lyman's addition, and that the said Mary Belle Green and the person signed as Maybelle Green is that certain deed dated October 5th, 1909, to I. N. Nabors, recorded in Deed Book 42, page 438, inthe office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, is the one and same person to affiant's own personal knowledge. Maybelle Green and Bittie Green were negro women who resided in Montevallo at that time, and affiant knows that the above party named were the one and the same.

oart of that certain tract of land which was allotted to Sara E. Nabors, and is known as a part of the King Place in the Town of Montevallo, and which was later, onto wit, November 28th, 1899, conveyed by the administrator of French Nabors estate to F. May Lyman, as shown by dead recorded in deed book 22 on page 506.

more than 40 years last past, Pat J. Kroell and those through whom Pat J. Kroell holds title to the above described land have been respectively in the open, notorious, continuous, peaceable and adverse possession of said lands, claiming them as their own respectively against all the world and exercising acts of ownership overesaid lands; that affiant has never heard the title of the said Pat J. Kroell, or those through whom he holds title to said lands to be questioned.
