State of Alabama, Shelby County)

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared N. E. Jones, who being duty sworn deposes and says that he resides near Acton in Shelby County, Alabama; that for a period of fifty years he has been acquainted with the ownership, possession, use and location of the following described lands, to-wit:

The Northwest quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section 36 Township 19 Range 3 West, except certain lots sold to N.N.Mosteller, J.F. Cunningham, Edith Walker, E. J. Kirkland, and W. A. Walker, as shown by deeds of record.

Affiant further says that his father M. J. Jones, purchased the above described land, together with other lands from Needham Acton during the year 1885, and went immediately into possession of said land and used the same as his home-stead up to the date of his death in 1915; that at the time that affiant's father moved upon and took possession of said land there was a dwelling house situated thereon and that his father cultivated certain parts of said land, used other parts for timber and fbrewood and other parts for general homestead purposes up until the date of his death; that affiant's own personal knowledge he knows that there are no adverse claimants to said land; that since the death of affiant's father he has continued to reside and make his home upon said land and has been in the continuous possession of the same since the death of affiant's father as aforesaid; that the estate of M. J. Jones, deceased, does not owe any debts.

Affiant further says that the heirs of the said M. J. Jones and those through whom the said heirs hold title to the above described land have been in respectively in the open, notorious, continuous, peaceable, and adverse possession of said lands, claiming them as their own respectively against all the world and exercising acts of ownership over the same for more than fifty years; that affiant has never heard of any claim being made that Sanders Jones ever owned any interest in and to said lands; that the said Sanders Jones was the grandfather of affiant; that affiant has never heard the title of the said M. J. Jones and his heirs or those through whom they hold title to said land to be questioned;

Affiant further says that the heirs at daw and next of kin of the said M. J. Jones are as follows: Rusha Bailey; Maudie Ann Owens; N. E. Jones; Fannie Jones Fincher; Joe Sidney Jones and Annie Jones King.
