State of Alabama,

Country of Jefferson)

Before me, the undersigned Notary Public in and for said County, and State personally appeared Lizzie Thomas, who is known to me and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says on oath that she was a sister of Mary ". Jeffeies, who was the owner at the time of her death of a certain mortgage executed by J.J. Eaton under date of September 17th, 1926, and being recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in Volume 147, of mortgages, page 461. That the said Mary T. Jeffries died more than five years ago and that she did not leave any husband surviving her nor any descendents of her's and that she left surviving her, as her only heip at law, this affiant and that she did not leave surviving any other brothers or sisters nor any descendents of a deceased brother or sister, and that her father and mother both died prior to her death. Affiant further says that at the death of her said sister, this affiant became entitled to all of her property, both real and personal and that all debts and claims against her estate were paid in full and that this affiant is now the the owner of said mortgage above mentioned and the indebtedness thereby secured. That there was never any administration upon the estate of her said sister and that there was never any necessity of any administration.
