STATE OF ALABAMA
SHELBY COUNTY

Before me; the undersigned authority in and for said State and County, as aforesaid, personally appeared J. R. White and H. S. Nelson, who being first duly sworn depose and say that they reside in the town of Columbiana, Alabama; that they have resided In said town for more than fifty-five years, last past; that for a period of more than fifty-five years, last past, they have been acquainted with the ownership, use location and possession of the following described lot situated in the town of Columbiana, Alabama, to-wit:

Seginning at the southwest corner of Lot #4 of the original survey of the town of Columbiana, Alabama which was formerly the southwest corner of the lot known as the Lester Storehouse Lot, and which point is also where the north line of the old Court House Square intersects the east line of Main Street; and running thence north the east line of Main Street a distance of 124.5 feet for a point of beginning of the lot herein conveyed; thence continue north along the east line of Main Street a distance of 22 feet and 9 inches thence west 50 feet, to the point of beginning.

Also, a strip Four Inches wide off of the north side of the Chapman and Looney Barber Shop Lot, which lot is more particularly described as follows: Bounded on the west by Main Street, on the north by the lot heretofore described, on the east by property formerly belonging to the Brown estate and on the south by the A. P. McGhee building said lot being 16 1/2 by 50 feet, and also one-half interest in the 13 inch wall, said wall being the north wall of said Barber Shop Building, and running east and west the full length of said barber shop building

Affiants further say that they are acquainted with the several owners and parties in interest of said lot for the past fifty-five years. Affiants further say that it is their best recollections that Elizabeth M. Sterrett had one child and that her name was Emma, who later married Samuel Roper, and as the fruits of said marriage there was borned one child, Lizzie Roper, who later married W. B. Brown, and as the fruits of said marriage there was borned to said parties Chester Brown, Margaret Brown, Myra Brown, Emma Brown, Elizabeth Brown and Bradford Brown, who died a number of years ago an unmarried man, and without having ever been married.

Affiants further say that they have known the above described lot for more than fifty-five years, and that of their own personal knowledge that the above described lot has been used as a business site on Main Street on the town of Columbiana, Alabama, for more than forty years.

Affiants further say that of their own personal knowledge that they known that for more than fifty years, last past, the Birmingham Trust and Savings Company, as Trustee of the estate of W. H. Mitchell, deceased, and those through whom the said Trustee holds title,— Elizabeth M. Sterrett, Emma Roper, Lizzie Brown, Chester Brown, Myra Brown, Margaret Brown, Emma Brown and Elizabeth Brown and their father, W. B. Brown, A. R. Looney, A. A. Acker, Lida E. Chapman, to the above described lot, have been respectively in the open, notorious, continuous, peaceable and adverse possession of said lot, claiming the same as their own respectively against all the world and exercising acts of ownership over the said lot by the use of the same as a business site; that affiants have never heard the title of said Trustee as aforesaid, or those through whom it holds title to the said lot to be questioned in any way.
