STATE OF ALABAMA)

SHELBY COUNTY.

BEfore me, the undersigned authority, in and for said State and County, as aforesaid personally appeared J. R. White and H. S. Nelson, who being duly sworn, depose and say that they reside at Columbiana, Alabama; that they have resided in the town of Columbiana, Alabama for more than 55 years; that for a period of fifty-five years last past they have been acquainted with the ownership, use, possession and location of the following described lot in the town of Columbiana, Alabama, towit:

That certain lot on the southeast corner of the intersection of Main and College Streets in the town of Columbiana, Alabama, described as follows: beginning at the intersection of the south line of College Street with the east line of Main Street and running thence East along the south line of College Street a distance of 89 feet to a point; thence south and parallel with Main Street a distance of 32 feet; thence west and parallel with the first line a distance of 89 feet to the east margin of Main Street; thence north along said Main Street a distance of 32 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning, and heretofore known as part of Lot #5 according to the original map of the town of Columbiana, Alabama.

Affiants further say that when they first knew this property that B. L. Moore was the towner and party in possession of said lot; that since the year 1889 and up to the present time of affiants own personal knowledge said lot has been used as a business site continuously. Affiants further say that during the year 1884 and for some time thereafter the said property was used as a business site By the affiant, J. R. White andhis partner, Spender, for several years; and later affiant, J. R. White, and his business partner, J.W. Johnson, operated a business in a building located on said lot for a number of years.

Affiants further say that of their own personal knowledge they known for more than fifty-five years, last past, that the Birmingham Trust and Savings Company, as Trustee of the estate of W. H. Mitchell, deceased, and those through whom the said Trustee holds title, namely: B. L. Moore, J. H. Page, Marie L. E. German, J. A. Vershot and A. H. Vershot to the above described lot, have been respectively in the opem, notorious, continuous, peaceable and adverse possession of said lot, claiming the same as their own respectively, against all the world, and have exercised acts of ownership over said lot; using the same for a business site for more than fifty-five years; that affiants have never heard the title of the said trustee, as aforesaid, or those through whom it holds title to the said lot, to be questioned in any way. Affiants further say that they never heard of the lines or boundaries to said lot to be questioned or disputed in any way.
