State of Alabama, Shelby County.

Before me, Grace Carter, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared J. H. Chapman, who is known to me and who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a bona fide resident of Shelby County, Alabama, and as such resident is entitled to and hereby selects and claims as exempt to him from execution, levy and/or sale and/or garnishment the following personal property, which does not exceed in value-mone thousand dollars, and which property constitutes and is a full statement of all personal property and choses in action belonging to him, with the value of each item thereof, and that he owns no other, viz:

Wages due him from Little Gem Coal Company a corporation, from the first day of January, 1937.

Also the following additional personal property which is located at Aldrich, Shelby County, Alabama, viz:

One 41 Colts Pistol of the value of - - - - = $25.00

He also claims as exempt all necessary and proper wearing apparel for himself and family, all family portraits, all books used in the family, and all other personal property specifically exempt to him under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Alabama.

Affiant hereby claims all of the aforementioned property as exempt to him from levy and sale under execution or other process, which has or may be issued for the collection of any debt contracted by him, as provided by law, and especially does he claim said exemptions from garnishment and suit instituted before J. R. Johnson, a Justice of the Peace for Beat 4 Shelby County, Alabama, in a case wherein Walter M. Shaw, as Administrator of the Estate of Pleasant Shaw, deceased and said J. H. Chapman is defendant

The debt for which said suit was instituted is for the collection of a debt which was contracted prior to this date.

J. H. Chapman

Sworn and subscribed to before me this the 6th day of February, 1937

Grace Carter,

Notary Public.

Seal.

Filed for record in this office the 6th day of February, 1937 at 3 PM and recorded in Deed Record #101, on page 362, and examined.

L. C. Walker, Judge of Probate
Shelby County, Alabama