STATE OF ALABAMA,

COUNTY OF SHELBY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT

WHEREAS, heretofore on to-wit, the 24th day of October, 1936, Claude Browne, as mortgagor, executed and delivered to International Harvester Company, as mortgagee, a chattel mortgage covering certain property and particularly three mules for the purpose of securing the payment of an indebtedness of the said mortgagor to the said mortgagee, which said mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Probate Judge of Shelby County, Alabama, on the 27th day of November, 1936, in Book 173, Record of Mortgages, page 97, and

WHEREAS, it was expressly provided in said mortgage that the three mules therein described were conveyed and mortgaged by the mortgagor to the mortgagee merely for the purpose of securing payment of the note that became due on the 1st day of March, 1937, and

WHEREAS, the mortgagor has paid to the mortgagee the installment and note that became due on the 1st day of March, 1937, and the Mortgagee desires to release from the force and effect of said mortgage the said above referred to mules,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, International Harvester Company does hereby release from the force and effect of said mortgage and does hereby convey and quitclaim to the mortgagor all of its right, title and interest in and to the mules depace 97. scribed in said mortgage, as follows:

One (1) Black mare mule named Mary about 8 years old, weight about 1150 lbs. One (1) White Horse mule name Charley about 14 years old, weighting about 1100#. One (1) Black Horse Mule named Frank about 7 years old, weighting about 1200#.

In Witness Whereof, the International Harvester Company has caused this release to be executed by its duly authorized agent on the 19th day of March, 1937.
