STATE OF ALABAMA
SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared J. A. Weaver, who being duly sworn deposes and says that he now resides near Columbiana, Alabama; that for a period of sixty years, last past, he has been acquainted with the following described land, to-wit:

All that part of Section 35, being part of kkexNorthwestxQuarterxof the Northwest Quarter of Section 35, Township 20, Range 1 East, containing 28 acres, more or less, and lying North of Four Mile Creek.

Affiant further says that Levi Weaver, the party who entered the above described land was the grand father of the Affiant; Affiant further says that George Weaver was a son of Levi Weaver, and the father of the affiant; that affiant's father came into possession of the above described property about sixty years, last past, through an inheritance of the estate of Levi Weaver; affiant further says that the several heirs at law of the said Levi Weaver divided the estate among the next of kin and that affiant's father, George Weaver, received the above described land and other lands as his part of the estate of Levi Weaver. Affiant further says that he knows that his father had a deed from the other heirs of Levi Weaver; that affiant has seen the deed at various times, but he does not think that the deed was ever recorded. Affiant further says that his father has been dead since the year 1900, and that he was in the open, notorious, continuous, peaceful and adverse possession of said lands for approximately twenty five years before his death.

Affiant further says that Mrs. A. V. Weaver is the wife of George Weaver, and the mother of affiant; and that J. E. Weaver, F. W. Perry and affiant, J. A. Weaver, on December 12th, 1904, were the sole survivors and next of kin of the said George Weaver, deceased, Affiant being first duly sworn deposes and says further that he knew William Spearman, sometimes called J. W. Spearman, and sometimes known as J. William Spearman, being the grantor in that certain deed from J. William Spearman to Connie Cross, dated August 17th, 1923, and known that the said party known by the several names heretofore given, was the one and same party.

Affiant further says that he has no interest, or claim in and to the above described real estate.

J. A. Weaver

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 15th day of February, 1937.
