State of Alabama, Shelby County.

Before me, Grace Carter, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared A. A. Brasher, who is known to me and who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says: Supplementing my affidavit of Febryary 5, 1938, which is recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 104 at page 106, I was acquainted with W.N.Jewell referred to in said affidavit, from the time he procured a deed from W.A.J.Blackerby in 1925, until the time of his death; I was with him practically every day during that time and knew of his financial situation. He paid cash for what he got and if he did not have the cash he did not buy and, at the time of his death, he owed no debts, and there was no need for an administration of his estate. Not only did he not owe any debts but he had some personal property in addition to the land referred to in my former affidavit.

At the time of his death he was a widower, his wife having died some years prior thereto. Further deposing affiant says that he has known said land intimately all of his life live and has lived close thereto during that time, and never did/more than a quarter of a mile from it and during all that time he never knew of or heard of M. K. Busby and R. A. Busby, or either of them, and never knew or heard of them claiming any interest in this land or being connected with the title thereto in any way until the last few days; they never lived in that section of the country where this land is situated, and in fact he never heard of them before he heard their names mentioned in connection with the title to this land within the last few days.

During all the time that affiant, A. A. Brasher has known said land neither M.K. Busby nor R A Busby, nor their heirs or any one connected with them have asserted any claim to said land or been in possession thereof in any manner.

A. A. Brasher
