

AFFIDAVIT

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,

Shelby County

Before me the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, personally appeared C. W. Blackerby who being first duly sworn on oath says that affiant has read over the affidavit attached hereto made by Charles H. Holcombe and dated the same day as this affidavit and that affiant has known the property described in said affidavit for the past 30 years and knows that the said Charles H. Holcombe has owned and occupied the said property for the said period of 30 years and that affiant has never heard the title of the said Charles H. Holcombe to said property questioned in any way whatever. Affiant further says that a portion of said property is under fence and in cultivation by the said Charles H. Holcombe and has been during all of the time that affiant has known the same each year and that said Charles H. Holcombe has exercised the usual act of ownership, such as cutting wood and rail timber, using said land for pasture, etc., during all of the time affiant has known the same.
