State of Alabama)

Houston County..)

Before Me, Susie Young, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared A. A. Roebuck, who is known to me and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am acquainted with the land described in the affidavit of J. R. Nabors, and have known this land since some time prior to 1911, and probable as far back as 1904, or perhaps further than that.

I remember the occasion when J. R. Nabors purchased the land from his father and got a deed to it.

I have read the affidavit of Mr. J. R. Nabors, above set out and the facts therein stated are true.

While I have not lived in the community where the land is situated continuously since 1923, yet I sold the adjoining land to W. L. Gilbert and have had occasion to be back in that community from time to time and know that Mr. J. R. Nabors has continued to own and possess said land up to the present time.

A. A. Roebuck
