State of Alabama Shelby County

Before me, Wm D McConaughy, the undersigned authority, in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Pat J Kroell, who, after being first duly sworn according to law to speak the truth deposes and says he is 69 years of age and has lived in Montevallo Shelby County, Alabama, for the past 65 years, and has all along been well acquainted with the property described below and those in possession of it:

Beginning at the easternmost corner of the Episcopal Church lot and run southwest along the line of said Churct lot 77 feet, thence north west and parallel to Shelby Street 119 feet, thence southwest and perpendicular to Shelby Street 93 feet, thence south east and parallel to Shelby Street 119 feet more or less to the east line of the Old Tan Yard property, thence southward along the line of said tan yard property to a, line which is drawn perpendicular to Shelby Street from a point 100 feet southeast of the point of beginning onthe southwest side of said street, thence northeast to said street at said point 100 feet SE of the beginning point, thence north west along Shelby Street 100 feet to the point of beginning, and known as the Presbyterian Church manse, in Montevallo, Shelby County, Alabama.

When affiant first remembers said property, all of it was enclosed by a fense, and belonged to Henry Wilson, who used it as a pasture each and every year until he sold it to H C Reynolds in the year 1883. Said H C Reynolds used said property as a pasture each and every year until the year 1897, when he sold same to Fred "Rogan, Said property was enclosed by a fence continuously while it was owned by said H C Reynolds. Fred W Rogan built a house on said property in the year 1897 and either lived on said property or rented it out continuously each and eyery year until 1918, when he sold same to R. F. MyKibbon, J L McConaughy, and F W Rogan, as "rustees of the Montevallo Presbyterian Church, property was enclosed by a fence all the time it was caned by Fred W Rogan and all of said property was used continuously during said time, part being the house sibe, part being a yard, part being a garden and part being a pasture. Said property was used by said church as a manse and was used and occupied by said Church's ministers eachand every year until April 20, 1939, when said property was conveyed to Terrell Bridges. During the time the property was owned by said Church, all of it was enclosed by a fence, and was used continuously, part being the house site, part being a year, possession of Terrell Bridges.

Affiant further says the possession of Terrell Bridges, and those through whom he claims, has as far back as affiant can remember to his own knowledge, has been open, actual, notorious, adverse, hostile, exclusive, peaceful, quiet, continuous and under color of title and claim of ownership, That affiant has never known of anyone being in possession of said property, claiming adverse to said owners, nor has he known of anyone disputing the title.

and part being a garden and part being a pasture each and every year. Terrell Bridges has been in continuois possession of said property since he purchased it and he has remodeled the dwelling house thereon, and said property, except for the front year, is still under fence and all of said property is in the active
