STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

Before me the undersigned authority personally appeared C. M. Stinson who being duly sworn deposes and says as follows:

That he is the son-in-law of Mrs. Mary D. Cooper who owns about 106 acres in Section 3 and 4, Township 20, Range 1E. I know of my own knowledge that the grantors in that certain deed dated February 20th, 1933, to Mary D. Cooper constituted on said date all of the heirs of W. J. Cooper who is deceased. The Names of these heirs are as follows: P. O. Cooper and wife, Margie Cooper. J. E. Cooper and wife Myrtle Cooper. Arvin Cooper, not married. Flossie Cooper Stinson, and husband C. M. Stinson, Gola Mae Sivley who is also known as Golda and Galda, and her husband J. L. Sivley, who is also known as Lute Sivley. Edna Cooper McCommon andhusband A. B. McCommon.

W. J. Cooper died in the year 1925 and left no debts outstanding against him, and there has been no administration of his estate in the Probate Court.

There are no outstanding mortgages which have been executed by W. J. Cooper and Mrs. Cooper which have not been paid and any mortgages which were executed by them should have been marked "Satisfied" of record.

The property described in said deed was not the homestead of P. O. Cooper and wife Margie Cooper on the date said deed was executed or at any time since.

C. M. Stinson.

Sworn to and subscribed before me on this the 5 day of April, 1940.

J. W. Moore, Justice of Peace
