State of Alabama,

Shelby County.

Defore me, Grace Carter, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared R. C. Mixon, who is known to me and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I was acquainted with Marie Callens during her life time. She was the widow of Charles Ware, and after the death of said Charles Ware she married Ellis Callens.

Said Charles Ware and Marie Ware, who was also known as Maria Ware, and Mariah Ware, had one child, viz: Eattie M. Ware.

Said Hattie M. Ware married A. A. Paters, and both of them have been dead for a number of years. They left surviving them as their sole heirs at law a son, C. W. Peters, and two daughters, viz: Mae Peters Hucle and Erlynne Peters Oglen.

all of the people herein referred to are colored people.
