

Affidavit #1548

State of Alabama
Shelby County

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared W.W. Wallace, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides at Columbiana, Alabama, and has so resided continuously for more than thirty-five years. Affiant further says that he was appointed commissioner to sell certain lands for division among the heirs at law of J.P. Christian, which sale was made upon petition of L.E. Christian in the Probate Court of Shelby County, Alabama, filed September 6th, 1905, for division among the joint owners, thereof.

Affiant further says that it is his best recollection that he sold said lands in strict conformity with the orders of the Court; and that he reported the same to the Court; and that the Court confirmed said sale, and that your affiant, as commissioner, executed deed to the purchaser, L.E. Christian, under authority of the decree of the court, and delivered the same to the said L.E. Christian; and that the said L.E. Christian paid the purchase price bid at said sale to affiant, as commissioner, and your affiant paid said money into Court.

W.W. Wallace
