Copy of Will

I, William Haskell Du Bose, Of Sewanee, Franklin County Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this instrument as my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

First: I direct that all my just debts be paid.

Second: I bequeath to my beloved wife, Deane S. Du Bose, all of the property of which I should die seized and possessed, including both real and personal property of every character, wherever situated. I give this property to my wife absolutely.

In the event my said wife should predecease me I direct that all my said estate shall go to my son Haskell Du Bose, Jr.

Third: I appoint my wife, Deane S. Du Bose, sole Executor of this will and direct that she be not required to give bond or make any report to the court. In the event my said wife should not survive me I direct that my said son, Haskell Du Bose Jr., shall serve as Executor, likewise without bond.

This the 29th day of July, 1932.

William Haskell Du Bose

Signed and published by William Haskell Du Bose in our presence, and witnessed by us, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other. This July 29th 1932.
