

AFFIDAVIT

#741

State of Alabama, |
Shelby County. |

Before the undersigned authority in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Willis H. Lyman, who is known to me and who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am acquainted with that certain parcel of land as described and conveyed in deed of Alabama College to Hattie Lyman, dated March 16, 1929, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in deed book 88 at page 307, and have known this property all of my life. Said Hattie Lyman went in possession of said property immediately after the execution of the aforementioned deed and built a house on it in 1929, and moved into it as soon as it was finished and lived in the house and had actual possession of the lot on which it was situated, and as described in said deed, up to the time of her death, and at her death my aunt, Mrs. Mary L. Hare went in possession of said property, lived in said house and was in the actual possession of the lot upon which said house was located, said lot being the same lot as conveyed in the deed of Alabama College to Hattie Lyman above referred to, until the time of her death, on the 10th day of February, 1941. From the date of the aforementioned deed to the date of the death of said Mary L. Hare, said Hattie Lyman and said Mary L. Hare were in the actual, open, notorious, continuous, exclusive, adverse possession of said lot and the house situated thereon, living upon it, and having actual possession of it as aforesaid, to the time of their respective deaths, and since the death of said Mary L. Hare, the heirs at law and next of kin of E. S. Lyman, Henry D. Lyman and William Lyman, who were brothers of said Hattie Lyman, and also brothers of said Mary L. Hare, have been in the actual, open, notorious, continuous, exclusive, adverse possession of said property down to the present time.
