STATE OF ALABAMA
JEFFERSON COUNTY

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned authority in and for said county and state, J. C. Persons, now President of the First National Bank of Birmingham, who, being duly sworn, on oath states that prior to July 11th, 1927, he was president of the Traders National Bank and that on such date there was a consolidation or merger of the Traders National Bank and the American Trust and Savings Bank, and that upon this consolidation he then became Executive Vice President of the new consolidation he then became Executive Vice President of the new consolidated bank known as the American Traders National Bank; that he was elected to the presidency of the American-Traders National Bank in January, 1928, in which office he remained until June 30, 1930, at which time the American-Traders National Bank and the First National Bank of Birmingham were consolidated, the new institution taking the name of The First National Bank of Birmingham of which institution he was made president, and is at this time; that at the time of the consolidation of the Trader National Bank and the American Trust and Savings Bank, to-wit, the 11th day of July, 1927, the American-Traders National Bank succeeded to all assets, trusts and functions of the American Trust and Savings Bank and the Traders National Bank; that the reason no record of said consolidation of the American Trust and Savings Bank and the Traders National Bank was made in the County of Jefferson, State of Alabama, is because the said consolidation was under an act of Congress, and a full record of said consolidation is to be had in the Comptroller's office in Mashington, D.C.
