STATE OF ALABAMA

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority in and for said County, in said State, J. R. Hurst who being by me first duly sworm deposes and says under oath as follows: Affiant is personally acquainted with E.A. Phillips and his son A.S. Phillips and also the lands conveyed by O.D. Dorough and wife and B.F. Dorough and wife, to E.A. Phillips, August 18th, 1911, and knew such lands at that time and continuously since and says that the said E.A. Phillips has had continuous, adverse, open and notorious possession of said lands from said date until their conveyance to his son who had continued such possession; that said lands nor any part thereof have not been claimed or said possession interefered with in any respect for more than thirty years and the general reputation is that said lands belong to the said Phillips and no other person is known to have made any claim of convership thereof, sid lands being described in said deed recorded in Shelby County, Alabama, in D. Book 53, Fage 365 from the Doroughs to E. A. Phillips and from E. A. Phillips to A.S. Phillips is recorded in Shelby County, Alabama, in the office of the Probate Judge of said County in Vol. D. Book 111, page 629, and this deed is also recorded in Jefferson County, Alabama, in the office of the Probate Judge, in Vol. 3154, Page 304. Approximately 27½ acres are situated in Jefferson County, Alabama, and the remainder in Shelby Courty, Alabama. I have no interest in said lands.

J. R. Hurst
