AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA, §
SHELBY COUNTY.... §

Before me, C.V. Moore, a Notary Public, in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared John H. Denham, who, being first duly sworn deposes and says that he resides at Alabaster, Alabama, and that he is now and has been for more than six praeight years, last past, engaged in the mercantile business at Alabaster in Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant further says that he knew S.P. Reed who, prior to his death, resided near Saginaw in Shelby County, Alabama, and that for some five or six years prior to the death of the said S.P. Reed your affiant was intimately acquainted with and had frequent business transactions with said decedent, and that during said time the said S.P. Reed was a regular customer and, in fact, did practically all of his buying for his home and for his farm from your affiant, and that in all sales and transactions with your affiant the said S.P. Reed paid cash for all purchases.

Affiant further says that from his intimate acquaintance from what he has heard and knows of his own knowledge, from his many business transactions with the said S.P. Reed that your affiant is confident that the said S.P. Reed at the time of his death owed no debts.

John H. Denham
