AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA,
SHELBY COUNTY....

Before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared W.L. Christian, who, being first duly sworn deposes and says that for more than twenty years, last past, that he has been Cashier, and is now President of the Columbiana Savings Bank, Columbiana, Alabama.

Affiant further says that during the year 1926 that R.J. Comer borrowed money from the Columbiana Savings Bank and placed with said Bank as collateral that certain mortgage executed by C.H. Nelson, Howard Parish and Margaret Parish to R.J. Comer, dated April 10, 1926, securing $1840, and recorded in Mortgage Book 141, on page 268, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant further says that sometime prior to September 14, 1929, the said R.J. Comer paid in full to the Columbiana Savings Bank his indebtedness which was secured by said mortgage and that the Columbiana Savings Bank retransferred and delivered to the said R.J. Comer the above described mortgage which said transfer was made by proper endorsement

Affiant further says that the Columbiana Savings Bank does not now claim any right, title, or interest in or to said mortgage or to the lands therein described.
